

Delaware Military Academy

2019 National Blue Ribbon School

December 16, 2019

Good morning Seahawk Nation,

Welcome to the last week of school for the 2019 year! This week we will begin the interview process for the class of 2024. The first round of interviews is scheduled for this Tuesday and Thursday, so if attempting to reach a member of the Admin team, please be patient on a response. We promise to address your question/concern as soon as we can.

Here is what is we have happening as we close out 2019:

There is a DMA Board meeting tonight beginning at 6:00pm.

Wednesday, December 18th is a school wide vaping assembly. Pleased to announce the amount of vaping incidents is down drastically from last year.

Please speak to your cadet about their driving. We continue to have cadets speeding, not using turn signals and driving inattentively. Those cadets displaying these behaviors on campus will have their privileges revoked for a period of time or permanently.
