(Delawareans today☺)

May 21, 2018

Good Morning, Seahawk Nation,

It is nice to see the sun finally shining again. For a minute there, it seemed like Delaware had become Seattle! Here is what we have happening around DMA:

- ❖ Throughout the year, we usually end the Commandant's Corner with the sports report. However, this week they rightfully deserve top billing! DMA athletics has had a phenomenal year and the future for our programs continues to get brighter! We have absolutely succeeded in having our cadets understand the mindset of being competitive on the field, in the classroom and life in general. This is demonstrated with the number of student athletes who are being recognized as not only All Conference and All State athletes, but Academic Athletes as well! We could not be more proud. Way to go athletes, and best of luck in the post season!
