DMA Stage One of Seven Return to Play & In-Person Instruction Policy

- ❖ Stage 1- September 28, 2020: Fall athletes to return to campus for practice and abbreviated game schedule.
- ❖ Monitoring stage - September 28, 2020- October 12, 2020
- ❖ During the monitoring stage, if an athlete or coach have a confirmed positive test result for Covid-19 the following action will go into effect:
  - Athlete/Coach removed immediately from the team upon confirmation of a positive test result.
  - Practices will continue as normal.
  - Deep cleaning of equipment/space will be done, in addition to the regular scheduled cleaning.
  - The confirmed positive athlete/coach will be quarantined for a 14-day period and unable to practice, observe in person.
  - The athlete/coach must be re-tested and provide documentation of a negative test to the Covid-19 coordinator Commandant Pullella to rejoin the team.
  - If the athlete/coach is re-tested within the 14-day period, and the result of the test is negative they must remain quarantined for the duration of the 14-day period.
- ❖ In the case of a team, having one or more confirmed positive cases would be considered an outbreak and that team's season will be suspended for a minimum of 14 days. During that time, all athletes/coaches will be required to be tested for Covid-19. The results of the test are to be given to the DMA Covid Coordinator Commandant Pullella.
- ❖ If all results of athletes/coaches are negative. The team will be permitted to resume the season.

In-Person Instruction: Stage Four Through Seven

During stage 4 (returning cadets for in person instruction) any confirmed positive case will be turned over to DPH for guidance and contact tracing on who and how many need to be quarantined. DMA will not make the call on cohorts or groups of cadets to be quarantined. Please see the DPH regulations for further guidance.
